

Harry H. Barber

One of the co-founders of the Barber-Greene Company, Mr. Barber was instrumental in the development of machines to mix and lay down asphalt paving mixtures, lifting the procedures from an inconsistent art to a repeatable science, thus raising the quality and reducing the costs of asphalt pavements. Mr. Barber's company is now one of the world's largest equipment manufacturers.

Elected: 1966